An artistic illustration of Jesus standing in profile, facing a large, arched wooden door. He has long brown hair and a beard, and is wearing a white tunic with a red cloak draped over his left shoulder. His right hand is raised, with fingers slightly curled, as if knocking on the door. The door is made of vertical wooden planks and has a metal handle. To the left of the door, a glowing yellow lantern hangs from a chain, casting a warm light. The background is a textured stone wall with grapevines and clusters of grapes hanging from above. The overall scene is set at night, with the lantern providing the primary light source.
